SECTION III: ADMINISTRATION OF ORDINANCE:

This ordinance may be administered, at the option of the County Commission, in accordance with a joint powers agreement between the City and the County.

SECTION IV: ENFORCEMENT:

- A. In accordance with a joint powers agreement between the City and County, Animal Control Officers shall have the authority to issue citations for violations of this Ordinance and state statutes regarding the care and control of animals, whenever there is probable cause to believe there exists a violation of this Ordinance and/or animal care and control statutes, and to perform such other duties as prescribed herein.
- B. Animal Control Officers shall have the authority to investigate upon probable cause any alleged violation of this Ordinance or any law of the State of New Mexico, which relates to the care, treatment, and control of animals and to the prevention of cruelty to animals.
- C. Animal Control Officers are authorized to enter upon and inspect premises and animals thereon within the county as necessary to perform their duties. If the owner or occupant of the premises objects to inspection, unless there appears to the ACO that probable cause exists of an emergency requiring such inspection, an ACO shall not enter upon the premises of the known owner for the sole purpose of taking up an animal which has been alleged to be running at large by a person who is not an ACO or Sheriff's Deputy.

SECTION V: IMPOUNDMENT

A. NOTICE REQUIRED:

1. The ACO or Sheriff's Deputy may take up and impound or cause to be impounded any stray animal found in the county, and any other animal found in violation of this Ordinance or state statute.
2. As soon as practicable after the date of impoundment, the Animal Control Officer shall attempt to notify the owner of such impoundment, if the owner of such animal is not already so informed. If the owner is not known or if his address cannot be reasonably determined, the ACO has no duty to give notice to the owner.
3. All violations and fine amounts shall be reported to the Animal Shelter custodian upon the animal's impoundment.
4. No animal that has been impounded may be adopted out for purposes of breeding or sale.

B. IMPOUNDING ESTRAY; NOTICE REQUIRED; REDEEMING ANIMALS:

1. Notice:
 - (a) No person shall, without the knowledge or consent of the owner, hold or retain possession of any animal of which he is not the owner for more than twenty-four (24) hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, when such person has knowledge of, or could reasonably discover, the owner of such animal, without first reporting the possession of such animal to the owner or, if this cannot be done, to an ACO.
 - (b) This provision is not intended to preempt the laws of the State of New Mexico.
2. If an impounded stray is wearing a license or bears other identification tags, the animal shall be confined at an appropriate animal shelter, pending notification to the owner or authorized agent, for a period of three (3) working days. The day the stray animal is impounded constitutes day one.
3. Upon notification, an owner or his authorized agent shall redeem his animal within twenty-four (24) hours. Any animal not claimed by an owner within twenty-four (24) hours following notification shall become the property of Cibola County and may be destroyed, impounded or adopted out at the discretion of the ACO.
4. Any owner who claims an unlicensed animal from the appropriate Animal Control Shelter must show proof of rabies shots and proof of spaying or neutering (when applicable) upon claiming said animal. Such owner may be cited by the ACO if proof of current rabies vaccination cannot be produced, the owner of the impounded animal must vaccinate the animal within three (3) working days and furnish proof of vaccination to the ACO.

5. It shall be the responsibility of the owner to reimburse the county for animal boarding, emergency veterinary cost, or other expenses incurred by the county, or a shelter, for any animal legally impounded under the provisions of this Ordinance, whether or not the animal is redeemed.
6. The owner of an impounded animal may claim his animal by paying the scheduled fines and impounding fees to the authorized agent of the County. An owner may elect to pay the fine under protest, request a hearing on the matter by accepting a citation from an ACO, appear at an arraignment in Cibola County Magistrate Court, and participate in a trial on the matter.
7. If an stray is not wearing a license and bears no other identification tags, the animal shall be impounded at the appropriate animal control shelter for three (3) working days, commencing from the first day of impoundment, and shall become the property of Cibola County and may be destroyed, impounded for an additional period or adopted out, at the discretion of the Animal Control Officer.
8. If an impounded animal is certified by a licensed veterinarian as suffering because of sickness, injury, or age, then it may be destroyed pursuant to Section 5 of this ordinance, after the ACO gives notice or attempts to give notice to the owner.

C. IMPOUNDMENT FEES:

1. Any animal impounded hereunder may be reclaimed as herein provided upon payment by the owner of charges, established, from time to time, by City Council Resolution, pursuant to a joint powers agreement for animal control and administration of this ordinance, or by County Commission Resolution in the absence of such joint powers agreement, as follows:
 - (a) an impoundment charge;
 - (b) a boarding charge;
 - (c) a rabies vaccination charge.
2. Any animal impounded hereunder may be adopted as herein provided upon payment by the adopter to the City of the charges listed above.

D. DESTRUCTION OF ANIMALS:

1. If an animal impounded under this section is not redeemed within the specified time periods, adopted out, or if such animal is suffering because of sickness, injury or age, as certified by a licensed veterinarian, then it shall be humanely and painlessly destroyed under the supervision of a licensed veterinarian, by an intravenous or intercardial injection of a dose of barbiturates (sodium phenobarbital), or any other method deemed humane by the Animal Control Officer.
2. Any animal which cannot be brought to an animal shelter because of the inability of an ACO to extricate or capture the animal which may be dangerous or have an incurable disease or is in any painful crippled condition, shall be destroyed by shooting by a law enforcement officer at the discretion of the ACO.

SECTION VI: RABIES CONTROL

A. RABIES VACCINATION:

1. It is the duty of all persons owning a cat or dog over the age of three (3) months to have such animal vaccinated against rabies. The rabies vaccination shall be given in an amount sufficient to provide immunity from rabies for one (1) year and shall be administered by a licensed veterinarian. A certificate or tag from a licensed veterinarian shall be evidence of vaccination. A graduate veterinarian may vaccinate his own dog or cat.
2. A veterinarian administering any rabies vaccine to any animal shall issue to the owner of the animal a numbered vaccination certificate or tag, which shall contain the name and address of the owner of the animal, a description of the animal vaccinated, the date of the vaccination and the expiration date of the period of immunity.
3. It is unlawful for the owner of any dog or cat to fail to exhibit a certificate or tag of vaccination, upon demand, to any Animal Control Officer.

- B. RABID ANIMAL: Any animal that has rabies or shows signs of having rabies, and any animal bitten by another animal afflicted by rabies, or that has been exposed to such a rabid animal, shall be confined at once in a secure place by the owner. A person who knows or has reason to know that any animal is infected with rabies or that an unvaccinated animal has been exposed to rabies shall immediately notify an ACO of the place where the animal is confined or can be found. The owner of said animal shall surrender said animal to the ACO upon demand. The ACO shall then deal with the rabid animal pursuant to state law. A vaccinated animal exposed to rabies may be required to be confined on the owner's property or premises for a minimum of ten (10) days, until it is determined by an ACO that there are no symptoms of rabies.

C. ANIMAL BITING A PERSON:

1. The owner of an animal that bites a person and the person bitten by an animal shall both report that occurrence to an ACO within twenty-four (24) hours of the occurrence. The owner of an animal that bites a person shall surrender said animal to an ACO to impound said animal for a period of observation deemed reasonably necessary by the ACO. A vaccinated animal may be confined upon its owner's premises during this time of observation.
2. The owner of the animal shall bear the cost of confinement. The ACO may consent to confinement on the owner's premises, but only if the owner can produce evidence of a current rabies vaccination at the time the bite was inflicted. The premises where the home confinement is to occur shall be inspected and approved for such purpose by the ACO. A person having custody of an animal that has bitten a person shall immediately notify the ACO if the animal shows signs of sickness or abnormal behavior.

3. A physician who renders treatment to a person bitten by an animal shall immediately report the fact that he has rendered such treatment to an ACO. The physician shall report the name, sex, and address of the animal that inflicted the bite, if known, and other facts that may assist the ACO in ascertaining the immunization status of the animal.

D. RESTRAINT OF ANIMALS:

1. All persons owning or having charge, custody, or control of any animal shall keep such animal restrained to prevent damage or harm to people and property. Violation of this section will subject said owner or keeper to a fine as set forth in Appendix A.
2. When a dog is away from its owner's premises, it must be under leash or under control of the owner. "Control" includes a dog that responds to sound commands of its owner. The owner of a dog shall not allow it to run at large or create a nuisance on another's property, be it public or private, including entering into and upon lawns, driveways, walkways, places of recreation, or amusement parks. The term "nuisance" shall include defecation or urination. Violation of this section will subject said owner or keeper to a fine as set forth in Appendix A.
3. Any animal trespassing upon private or public property shall be deemed prima facie not to be under the immediate control of the owner or of his designee and the owner shall be in violation of Section VI, D1 and D2 above and subject to penalties, as set forth in Appendix A, attached hereto and made an integral part to this Ordinance.

SECTION VII: PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

A. DOGS RUNNING AT LARGE:

It is unlawful for any owner to allow or permit any dog to run at large. Any dog permitted to run at large in violation of this Section is declared to be a nuisance and a menace to the public health and safety, and may be taken up and impounded as provided in Section V, et. seq. In addition, its owner shall be subject to the penalties set forth in this Ordinance.

B. ANIMALS ON UNENCLOSED PREMISES; CHAINED ANIMALS:

1. It is unlawful for any person to chain or stake any animal in a cruel or inhumane manner. Where circumstances warrant and no other alternative exists for confining an animal on its owner's property, a rope, cable, or chain may be used to restrain the animal, provided the following criteria are met:
 - (a) The rope, chain or cable must be affixed to the animal by use of a nonabrasive, comfortably fitted collar or harness;

- (b) The rope, chain, or cable must be at least twelve (12) feet in length unless such length allows the animal to enter into another's property, in which case the chain shall be no less than eight (8) feet in length. The chain must be unobstructed by objects which might cause the animal to become entangled;
 - (c) The animal must have easy and constant access to adequate shelter, food and potable water;
 - (d) The area where the animal is confined must be kept free of garbage, feces, or other debris which may endanger the animal's health and safety;
 - (e) The animal must be tied reasonable near the owner's residence or work place and must not be left unattended for longer than a twelve (12) hour period.
2. Invisible fencing. Where an owner maintains an invisible fence, i.e., an electrical device designed to contain animals wearing an appropriate collar within a confined area, which is in operation at all times that a dog is outdoors on the owner's premises, and within the invisible fencing, and where each owner's dog on the premises wears the applicable collar, then the provisions of Section VII, B1, shall not apply, provided that the invisible fence does, in fact, retain the dog on the owner's premises.
3. Violations of these requirements will constitute an act of neglect/cruelty, and will subject the animal to immediate impoundment and the owner to the penalties set forth in Appendix A, attached hereto and made an integral part of this Ordinance.

C. VICIOUS ANIMALS:

It is unlawful for any person to keep or harbor a known vicious animal in the county. Any attack to a person, livestock or domestic animal by a vicious animal or any animal displaying traits of a vicious animal may be repelled by the use of reasonable force, including deadly force. After a judicial determination that an animal is vicious, the court having jurisdiction over the enforcement of this Ordinance, upon hearing of such complaint, may, in addition to any fine or imprisonment which may be imposed for violation hereof, order the ACO to have such animal destroyed as set forth in Section V, (D), of this ordinance.

D. ANIMAL DISTURBING THE PEACE:

It is unlawful for any person to allow any animal to persistently or continuously bark, howl, or make noise common to their species, or otherwise to disturb the peace and quiet of the inhabitants of Cibola County, New Mexico, or to keep or maintain animals in such a manner as to disturb by noxious or offensive odors, or otherwise endanger the health and welfare of another person.

CIBOLA COUNTY, NM, EILEEN M MARTINEZ - COUNTY CLERK DOC #: 2001 3886

E. ANIMAL NUISANCE ON SIDEWALKS, PUBLIC PARKS, ALLEYS, AND OTHER PUBLIC PLACES:

1. It is unlawful for the owner of any animal to permit, either willfully or through failure to exercise due care or control, any such animal to commit any nuisance:
 - (a) upon a sidewalk
 - (b) in a public park
 - (c) upon the floor, hall or wall in any multiple dwelling, entryway, stairway, or wall immediately abutting on a public sidewalk
 - (d) public buildings such as a theater, shop, store, office building
 - (e) upon any private property other than that of the animal owner
2. When an animal defecates in a public place, the owner must remove the feces and dispose of it in a sanitary manner. The term nuisance shall include any defecation or urination, destruction of property or disturbing the property of another, including rubbish or trash of a Cibola County resident.
3. Violation of this Section shall constitute a nuisance and shall subject the owner to the penalties set forth in Appendix A, attached hereto and made an integral part of this Ordinance.

F. UNLAWFUL USE OF LICENSE TAG:

It is unlawful for any person to remove any license tag from one animal to another or to remove a license tag from an estray without lawful permission; and it is unlawful for any person to manufacture or cause to be manufactured or to have in his possession or under his control, a stolen, counterfeit, or forged animal license tag, rabies vaccination certificate or other form of animal or premises licensing.

G. ANIMALS TRAINED TO ASSIST THE HANDICAPPED ALLOWED IN PUBLIC PLACES:

Animals trained to assist the handicapped, including blind or deaf persons, commonly known as service animals, shall be allowed in public places and it shall be unlawful for any person who owns, operates, or maintains any public place of business or conveyance into which the general public is invited to debar or exclude there from any animal which has been trained to assist the handicapped, provided such animal accompanies the handicapped person it was trained to assist.

H. WRITTEN COMPLAINT REQUIREMENT:

For any alleged violations of Section VII of this Ordinance, an ACO may before further action or investigation, require a complaint to submit, on a form provided by the ACO, a written complaint of the alleged Ordinance violation, giving the name and address of the complainant and, if available, of the owner who is in violation.

SECTION VIII: CRUELTY TO ANIMALS PROHIBITED

A. PHYSICAL ABUSE:

It is unlawful for any person to willfully or maliciously kill, beat, sexually abuse, maim, poison, disfigure, burn, or scald any animal, except that reasonable force may be employed only to drive off and repel vicious or trespassing animals.

B. MOLESTING ANIMALS:

It is unlawful for any person to tease, annoy, disturb, or molest any animal, which is on the property of its owner, or under the control of its owner.

C. WORK CRUELTY:

It is unlawful for any person to drive or work an animal cruelly.

D. CARE AND MAINTENANCE:

1. It is unlawful for any owner of an animal to fail, refuse, or neglect to provide said animal with proper and adequate food, drink, shade, shelter and ventilation. Any animal habitually kept outside shall be provided, by its owner, with a structurally sound, weatherproof enclosure large enough to accommodate the animal in a manner suitable for that species, or other shelter suitable to the species.
2. An owner must keep the premises where an animal is kept free of garbage, hazardous materials, feces, insect infestation, and other debris that may endanger the animal's health and safety.
3. An owner must provide an injured or sick animal with adequate veterinary care so as to reduce its suffering.
4. Violations of this Section of the Ordinance are punishable by fines and/or imprisonment as set forth in Appendix A, attached hereto and made an integral part of this Ordinance.

E. UNCARED FOR ANIMALS, ABANDONMENT:

1. Whenever an Animal Control Officer finds that any animal is or will be without proper care because of injury, illness, and/or incarceration or as a result of the absence of the owner or person responsible for the care of such animal, the ACO may enter the property or premises where said animal is located and may take up such animal for protective care; and in the event of sickness or injury of the animal, upon the instruction of a licensed veterinarian, the ACO may take such action as called for to prevent undue pain and suffering, including immediate destruction of the animal.
2. It is unlawful for any person to abandon any animal in Cibola County.

F. INJURY TO ANIMALS BY MOTORIST:

REC DATE: 01/30/2001 REC TIME: 08:51 BOOK: 9 PAGE: 7191
CIBOLA COUNTY, NM, EILEEN M MARTINEZ - COUNTY CLERK DOC #: 2001 3886

1. Every operator of a motor vehicle or other self-propelled vehicle upon the streets and ways of the county shall immediately upon hitting, striking, maiming, or running down any animal, render aid to the animal as is reasonable. In the absence of the owner, said operator shall immediately notify the ACO, furnishing sufficient facts relative to the incident to identify the location of the injured animal, type of animal injured, and name and address of the motorist striking the animal. It is the duty of such operator to remain at or near the scene for a reasonable length of time or until such time as the appropriate authorities permit the operator to leave the scene after providing his name, address, and other relevant information as requested by the appropriate authorities. Alternatively, in the absence of the owner, a person may give aid by taking the animal to a licensed veterinarian or to an animal control shelter and notifying an ACO.
2. The ACO, in the absence of the owner and upon instruction of a licensed veterinarian, may take such action as called for to prevent undue pain and suffering, for any animal struck by a motor vehicle.
3. Emergency vehicles in the course of emergency duty are excluded from these provisions with the exception of reporting the incident.

G. ANIMAL FIGHTS:

It is unlawful for any person to promote stage, hold, manage, conduct, or carry on any game, exhibition or contest in which one or more animals are engaged for the purpose of injuring, killing, maiming, or destroying themselves, or any other animal.

H. BIRDS:

It is unlawful to willfully kill or maim any wild bird other than game birds upon a duly acquired state hunting license, or to molest or rob the nest of a bird

I. FALSE REPORTS PROHIBITED:

It is unlawful for any person to make a false report to a Sheriff's Deputy or an ACO regarding any animal in danger or stray or regarding any supposed violation of this Ordinance.

J. SCOPE OF SECTION VIOLATIONS:

1. It is expressly provided that subsections A through I of this section shall apply equally to domestic livestock, exotic animals, and wild animals in addition to dogs and cats.
2. Violations of subsections A through K of this section are punishable by fines and/or imprisonment as set forth in this Ordinance.
3. The provisions of this section (VIII) shall be interpreted to prohibit cockfighting in Cibola County.

REC DATE: 01/30/2001 REC TIME: 08:51 BOOK: 9 PAGE: 7192
CIBOLA COUNTY, NM, EILEEN M MARTINEZ - COUNTY CLERK DOC #: 2001 3886

4. The provisions of this section (VIII) do not apply to:
 - (a) the practice of veterinary medicine, as provided in Chapter 61, Article 14 NMSA 1978;
 - (b) fishing, hunting, falconry, taking and trapping, as provided in Chapter 17, NMSA 1978;
 - (c) rodent or pest control, as provided in Chapter 77, Article 15, NMSA;
 - (d) the treatment of livestock and other animals used on farms and ranches for the production of food, fiber or other agricultural products, when the treatment is in accordance with commonly accepted agricultural animal husbandry practices;
 - (e) the use of commonly accepted Mexican and American rodeo practices, unless otherwise prohibited by law;
 - (f) research facilities, intermediate handlers, carriers and exhibitors licensed pursuant to the provisions of 7 U.S.C. Section 2136.

K. REPEAT OFFENSE:

1. Three or more violations of any one or any combination of Section VIII offenses of this Ordinance shall constitute an act of cruelty. A repeat offender shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding $500.00 and/or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six (6) months.
2. In cases of repeat offenses under Section VIII of this Ordinance, an ACO shall have the authority to impound any animal subjected to cruelty, neglect or abandonment. The animal may not be returned to its owner before a hearing in Magistrate Court, if, in the opinion of the ACO, the harm to the animal is severe and likely to recur.
3. In cases of repeat offenses for animals subjected to cruelty, neglect or abandonment, the ACO may have such animals adopted to another owner, thereby extinguishing all property rights of the existing owner, providing the ACO serves written notice upon the existing owner, informing him of the ACO's intent to have said animal adopted by another owner, and giving the existing owner three (3) business days to declare his intent to maintain ownership and pay all impoundment, boarding and veterinary costs, up to the date of the owner's declaration of intent to maintain the ownership of his animal. This intent must be stated in writing, signed by the animal's owner and delivered to the Animal Shelter keeping the animal. The statement of intent and payment of fees and costs will serve to stop any animal adoption proceeding.

L. DOG KILLING OR INJURING LIVESTOCK OR POULTRY; DAMAGES; DOG TO BE KILLED:

REC DATE: 01/30/2001 REC TIME: 08:51 BOOK: 9 PAGE: 7193
CIBOLA COUNTY, NM, EILBEN M MARTINEZ - COUNTY CLERK DOC #: 2001 3886

If any dog shall kill or injure any livestock or poultry, the owner or keeper of such dog shall be liable for all damages that may be sustained thereby, to be recovered by the party so injured before any court having competent jurisdiction, and it shall be unlawful to keep such dog after it is known that the dog is liable to kill livestock or poultry, and it shall be the duty of the owner to kill, or have killed, the dog upon order of the court after a finding that the dog has killed or injured livestock or poultry, and provided further, that it shall be the right of any owner of livestock or poultry so killed or injured by the actions of any dog to kill the dog while it is upon property controlled by the owner of the livestock or poultry.

SECTION IX: WILD OR EXOTIC ANIMALS; GUARD DOGS

A. KEEPING OF WILD AND/OR EXOTIC ANIMALS:

1. No person shall keep an animal or species prohibited or Protected by Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, or by §17-3-22, NMSA 1978 as amended.
2. No person shall keep an animal which is wild, vicious, dangerous, noxious, or naturally inclined to do harm, except in a zoological park, veterinary hospital, animal shelter, public laboratory, circus, amusement show, or educational facility for which adequate protection devices shall be provided to prevent any animals from escaping or injuring the public.
3. All provisions of this Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding, no person shall keep a wild or exotic animal in such a manner as to constitute likelihood of harm to the animal or other animals, to human beings, to the property of human beings, or in any other manner which constitutes a public or private nuisance.

B. GUARD DOGS:

Anyone using or keeping a dog for the sole purpose of guarding property, and neither as a pet nor for hunting purposes, must follow the restrictions set forth in this Section, in addition to all other applicable provisions of this Ordinance, as follows:

- (a) The enclosure surround the property where the guard dog is kept must be secure at all times so as to prevent the dog from running at large, unless the owner complies with Section VII (B).
- (b) If chained, the animal must be located within ten (10) feet of the entrance to the building to be guarded, and chained in such a manner as set forth in Sections VII (B).
- (c) The owner of the guard dog shall post warning signs prominently on all sides of the premises and on the entryway to the premises, stating that a guard dog is on the premises, in both English and Spanish and no more than 200 feet apart.

SECTION X: DEAD ANIMALS

A. DISPOSAL:

1. Within twenty-four (24) hours of death of an animal, the owner shall dispose of the carcass by burial at least three (3) feet underground in a suitable location, or by other means approved by the ACO.
2. Given the constraints of county resources, the ACO may, at his discretion, pick up the carcass of dogs and cats from the homes of the owners who are residents of the county. The fee for this service is set forth in Appendix A attached hereto and made an integral part of this Ordinance.
3. An animal carcass picked up under this section of the Ordinance shall be disposed of by the county in whatever the manner is determined to be the most feasible to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the county.

SECTION XI: TAMPERING

A. BREAKING INTO ENCLOSURE:

Any person who shall in any manner break into or aid, directly or indirectly, in breaking into the enclosure in which any animal is impounded or kept under authority of an ACO shall be guilty of a petty misdemeanor.

B. HINDERING AN ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICER:

Any person who shall willfully or intentionally hinder or obstruct an Animal Control Officer in the discharge of his official duty under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a petty misdemeanor.

SECTION XII: REGULATIONS FOR KENNELS, GROOMING PARLORS, PET SHOPS, PET SHELTERS, HOBBY BREEDERS AND HOUSEHOLDS

A. PERMITS; STANDARD; REVOCATION OF PERMITS:

1. It shall be unlawful to keep, maintain, harbor or possess upon the premises of any one household or upon the premises of any one business property, more than four (4) mature dogs unless the owner or person in charge thereof has obtained a permit from the ACO to operate a kennel, or unless these animals have been neutered or spayed and are otherwise maintained in a humane and responsible manner as specified by this Ordinance.
2. The cost of obtaining a kennel permit is set forth in Appendix A. Each kennel license or permit must be renewed annually and a new permit fee paid.
3. No kennel permit shall be issued until an inspection of the kennel by an ACO finding compliance with this Ordinance is completed.
4. The ACO is authorized to inspect, at any reasonable hour, any kennel holding a permit to operate. By accepting a kennel permit, the permittee is agreeing to surrender the kennel for inspection at a reasonable time upon the request of an ACO.

5. All kennels, as defined herein, shall, in addition to other provisions of this Ordinance, comply with the minimum standards of this Section. Failure to meet these standards shall be grounds for denial of a permit or revocation of a permit. The following standards, must be met:
 - (a) animal enclosures must be provided which allow adequate protection against all weather extremes. floors of the building, runs and walls must be constructed with an impervious material to permit proper cleaning and disinfection;
 - (b) building temperatures shall be maintained at a comfortable level, and adequate ventilation and adequate lighting shall be maintained at all times;
 - (c) each animal shall have sufficient space to stand up; lie down, and turn around without touching the sides or tops of cages;
 - (d) cage material and construction shall permit adequate cleaning and sanitizing;
 - (e) cages shall be heated and shall be of an impervious, washable material, and shall have a resting board or other appropriate bedding;
 - (f) rooms shall provide an adequate exercise area and protection from weather, and runs shall have an impervious surface;
 - (g) all animal quarters and rooms are to be kept clean and dry and in a sanitary condition;
 - (h) animal food shall be free from contamination, shall be wholesome, palatable, and of sufficient quantity and nutritive value to meet the normal daily requirement for the relative condition, age and size of the animals;
 - (i) all animals shall have fresh, potable water available at all times, and water vessels shall be mounted or secured in a manner that prevents tipping and be of a removable type.
6. Any permit issued pursuant to this section may be revoked if an ACO has reasonable cause to believe that the standards set forth in this section are not being met, or if the permittee or the person caring for or having control of the animals has violated any section of this Ordinance or is in violation of any zoning, health and safety, or building ordinance relating to keeping, care or use of any animal.
7. Number of Animals Permitted: No household or member thereof shall be allowed to own harbor or keep dogs or cats, or any combination thereof, totaling more than four (4) mature animals, unless these animals have been neutered or spayed and are otherwise maintained in a humane and responsible manner as required by this Ordinance. Any household owning dogs or cats of any combination thereof totaling more than four (4) mature animals, which animals are licensed before the effective date of this Ordinance, shall be allowed to retain more than four (4) mature animals only as long as the particular animals owned on the effective date of this Ordinance remain in the possession of said household, unless these animals are neutered or spayed. Provided further, that the head of any household shall be held responsible for any violation of this Section by the household or any of its members.

SECTION XIII: PENALTY; GRACE PERIOD; RESTITUTION; SAVINGS CLAUSE; REPEAL

A. PENALTY CLAUSE:

1. Each violation of any provision of this Ordinance shall constitute a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof the offender shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $300.00 and/or imprisonment for a period not exceeding ninety (90) days. In addition to the foregoing penalties, the offender may be required to attend animal training or care school.
