SECTION II. AUTHORITY OF SHERIFF AND ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICERS

The Sandoval County Sheriff’s Officers and the Animal Control Officers shall have the authority to issue citations for violation of this Ordinance and to perform such other duties as are prescribed herein. The Animal Control Officers shall carry identification certifying him/her as being an Animal Control Officer. The Animal Control Officers shall be under the supervision of the Sandoval County Sheriff’s Department.

SECTION III. IMPOUNDING ESTRAYS, RECORDS TO BE KEPT, REDEMPTION FEES, NOTICE REQUIRED, and OWNER’S IMPOUNDMENT.

1. No person shall, without the knowledge or consent of the owner, hold or retain possession of any animal of which he is not the owner, for more than twenty-four (24) hours without first reporting the possession of such animal to the Sandoval County Animal Control Officer, giving his name and address, and a true and complete statement of the circumstances under which he took the animal, a description of the animal and the precise location where such animal is confined.

2. It shall be the responsibility of an animal owner redeeming an animal legally impounded under the provisions of this Ordinance to reimburse the Animal Control Facility for animal boarding or other costs. The County Manager shall prescribe the amount of the impoundment fee approximately based upon actual cost.

3. The Animal Control Officer shall maintain a record of all animals impounded. The record shall contain at least the following information:

- a. A complete description of the animal;
- b. The date and manner of its acquisition;
- c. The date, manner and place of impoundment.

SECTION IV. ANIMAL BITES, RABIES, INJURED ANIMALS.

1. The Provisions of Sections IV through VI shall not apply to livestock.
2. Rabies Vaccinations. It is the duty of all persons owning or keeping a dog or cat or any member of the canine or feline family over the age of three months, to have such animals vaccinated against rabies. An owner shall furnish proof of vaccination to the County upon demand.
3. Rabid Animal. An animal that has rabies or shows signs of having rabies, and every animal bitten by another animal afflicted with rabies or exposed to rabies shall be confined at once in a secure place by the owner.
4. Animal Biting a Person.
 - a. The owner of an animal that bites a person and a person bitten by an animal have a duty to report that occurrence to a County Animal Control Officer within 24 hours. The owner of an animal that bites a person shall surrender said animal to an Animal Control Officer if the County Animal Control Supervisor deems it necessary to impound said animal for a period of observation. The Animal Control Officer may order the owner of such animal to place the animal in quarantine on the owner's premises.
 - b. A physician who renders professional treatment to a person bitten by an animal shall report the fact he has rendered professional treatment to the County Animal Control Supervisor within 24 hours of his first professional attendance. The physician shall report the name and address of the person bitten as well as the type and location of the bite. The physician shall give the name and address of the owner of the animal that inflicted the bite, if known, and any other facts or details that may assist the County Animal Control Officer in ascertaining the immunization status of the animals.
 - c. An animal that bites a person shall be confined securely at a place and for a period of time deemed necessary and appropriate for public protection by the Supervisor of the County Animal Control. The Supervisor of the County Animal Control Office may consent to confinement on the owner's premises.
 - d. Restraint of Animals. Every person owning or having charge, custody, or care or control of any dog shall keep such animal exclusively upon his own premises or under the owner's control.

- e. Female Dogs or Cats in Mating Season to be Confined. Any person in control of a female dog or cat in mating season shall confine such dog or cat as to preclude other dogs or cats from attacking or being attracted to such female animal.

SECTION V. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES.

1. Animals Running at Large. It is unlawful for any person to allow or permit any animal to run at large in or on any street, alley, sidewalk, vacant lot, public property, other unenclosed place in the County; or private property without the permission of the owner thereof. Any animal permitted to run at large in violation of this section is declared to be a nuisance, a menace to the public health and safety, and shall be taken up and impounded. A working dog performing such acts as herding or search and rescue under the control and supervision of owner/handler shall not be considered as unleashed while performing these duties. A hunting, obedience, tracking or show dog shall not be considered unleashed while performing in the above capacities. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to livestock.
2. Vicious Animals. It is unlawful for any person to keep or harbor a vicious animal in the County of Sandoval. Any person attacked by a vicious animal while on public property may use necessary force to repel said attack. After a judicial determination that an animal is vicious the owner or keeper of such vicious animal shall destroy it humanely or turn such animal over to an animal control officer for destruction.
3. Animals Disturbing the Peace. It is unlawful for any person to allow any animal to unreasonably bark or howl or otherwise to disturb the peace and quiet of the inhabitants of the County of Sandoval, to keep or maintain in such a manner as to allow noxious or offensive odors to emanate from the property, and to otherwise endanger the health and welfare of the inhabitants of the County of Sandoval. The provisions of this section shall not apply to livestock.
4. Dogs Trained to Assist the Blind, Deaf and/or Handicapped Allowed in Public Places. It is unlawful for any person owning, operating, or maintaining any public place of business or conveyance into which the general public is invited for any business purpose to debar or exclude therefrom any dog which has been trained to assist the blind, deaf, and/or disabled provided that such dog be in the company of the blind, deaf, and/or disabled person whom it was trained to assist in conformance with N.M.S.A. 28-11-3 (1978).

SECTION VI. CRUELTY TO ANIMALS PROHIBITED.

1. Physical Abuse. It is unlawful for any person to willfully or maliciously kill, maim, disfigure, torture; beat with a stick, chain, club, or other object; mutilate, burn, or scald with any substance, overdrive or otherwise cruelly set upon any animal except that necessary force may be employed to drive off vicious or trespassing animals. Hunting or fishing in accordance with law shall not be construed as a violation of this section.
2. Care and Maintenance. It is unlawful for any person to fail, refuse, or neglect to provide any animal in his charge or custody, as owner or otherwise, with adequate food, drink, shade, ventilation, care, or shelter to maintain good health.

3. Abandonment of Animals. It is unlawful for any person to abandon any animal within the County of Sandoval.

4. Animal Poisoning. It is unlawful for any person by any means to make accessible to any animal, with the intent to cause harm or death, any substance that has in any manner been treated or prepared with any harmful poisonous substance. It is not the intent of this section to prohibit the use of poisonous substances for the control of vermin of significance to the public health.

5. Animal Fights; Including Fowl. It is unlawful for any person to promote, stage, hold, manage, conduct, carry on or attend any game, exhibition, contest or fight in which one or more animals are engaged for the purpose of injuring, killing, maiming, or destroying themselves or any other animals.

6. It shall be unlawful for any person to interfere, hinder or prevent the Animal Control Officers or Sheriff's deputies in enforcing any provision of this Ordinance.

7. Right of Entry. The animal control officer, in performance of his duties, may enter upon private property except into a private residence, for the purpose of apprehending animals running at large and stray animals.

SECTION VII. ANIMAL KILLING OR INJURING LIVESTOCK AND/OR PROTECTED WILDLIFE - DAMAGES - ANIMAL TO BE KILLED.

If any animal shall kill or injure any livestock and/or protected wildlife, the owner or keeper of such animal shall be liable for all damages that may be sustained thereby, to be recovered by the party so injured before any court having competent jurisdiction. It shall be unlawful to keep such animal after it is known the animal has killed or injured livestock and/or protected wildlife. It shall be the duty of the owner to surrender the animal to Animal Control for proper humane euthanization upon order of the court after a finding that the animal has killed or injured livestock and/or protected wildlife. It shall be the right of any owner of livestock and/or protected wildlife so killed or injured by the actions of any animal to kill the animal while it is upon property controlled by the owner of the livestock and/or protected wildlife.

SECTION VIII. PENALTY, SAVINGS, REPEALING, REVIVOR, EMERGENCY CLAUSE.

1. Penalty Clause. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred ($300) dollars and/or imprisonment for a period not exceeding ninety (90) days. Each day this Ordinance is violated shall be considered a separate offense.

2. Savings Clause. If any of the sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases of this Ordinance are for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance shall not be thereby affected since it is the express intent of the County Commission to pass each section, phrase, paragraph and word separately.

3. Repealing Clause. All County Ordinances_ and other ordinances and parts thereof that solely relate to animals or the control of the same heretofore imposed by the County and that are in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. Any conflict between this Ordinance and any previously enacted ordinance not repealed herein shall be controlled by this Ordinance.
